ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Thank you, Alhamdulillah, for the Divine gift of abundant grace and guidance, which has enabled us to successfully prepare for this task. We were successful in preparing for this task through inspiration, mercy, and guidance bestowed upon our lord, the Prophet Muhammad SAW, with blessings and greetings.

It's been a lot of work, but we couldn't have done it without the help and direction of some very important people. We would like to express our gratitude to Ustaz Ahmad Murshidi Bin Mustapha for all of their assistance with this project; they provided us with resources as well as critical information that we needed to complete our task successfully.

A thank you also goes out to our parents and friends who were there every step of the way during this time period without them, I'm not sure what would've happened! We also want to thank all of the people who have been working alongside us on this project. It's so great that you are willing to help out when we need it! Thank you for your hard work and dedication, which have made our success possible.

ABSTRACT

A will is one of the important instruments for Islamic property planning where it is a gift of property that occurs after the death of the testator. Property planning instruments through the will method are highly encouraged for Muslims to facilitate property management and also to avoid property disputes between families, relatives and future heirs. Accordingly, this writing will focus on the concept and implementation of wills according to the law and the perspective of Shariah law as well as looking at the realities of the claims of the will confirmation case.
