Preface

It is with great pleasure and pride that I present to you Voice of The Soul Volume III: A poetry compilation with the theme of Healing With Poetry. This volume is a testament to the power of words to heal, comfort, and transform. The 200 poems contained within these pages are diverse in theme and style, yet they are united by a common purpose which is to offer relief and insight during times of struggle and to celebrate the flexibility of the human spirit.

As the chief editor, I have had the honour of curating and refining these works, ensuring that each poem resonates with the theme of healing. This journey has been a deeply enriching experience, allowing me to witness the myriad ways in which poets can articulate pain, joy, hope, and recovery. Each contributor has poured their heart and soul into their verses, creating a tapestry of emotions and reflections that will undoubtedly touch every reader.

This compilation would not have been possible without the unwavering support and collaboration of many individuals. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our dedicated team of editors, who meticulously reviewed each submission, and to the poets whose bravery and creativity have brought this project to life. Special thanks are also due to our publishing team for their hard work in bringing this volume to fruition.

Healing With Poetry is more than just a collection of poems; it is a journey through the human experience, offering a beacon of light for those navigating the darker times. It is my hope that these poems will provide you with the same comfort and inspiration that they have given me.

AWAKENING THE SPIRIT OF SMALL HEARTS By : Nasibah Azme

They are small hearts, innocent and young, Seeking guidance, still unripe to encounter the real world. Trying to adapt to all the challenges of their life, They can suddenly lose and weaken.

This current generation, Is easily fragile. They tend to forget their big "why", Easily lose with all the challenges they face. Urging us to help them, pulling them back on track in a wise way.

We cannot say 'in our time...' Such words will not boost their motivation. We must engage with patience, tenderness, and care. It is our duty; To motivate, to inspire, to comfort them To recall why they are here, on Earth To reaffirm their ultimate purpose of life

Motivating another spirit is an essential task, As humans and khalifah.

Awakening another's spirit is the biggest role, Remembering our ultimate purpose of life is our duty. Putting effort to ensure they remain steadfast in life is valuable,

So that we know, we have served our duty as humans and khalifah.
