Majlis Anjung Budi @APB50: Golden Jubilee Celebration

The event started with a welcoming speech by the Dean of APB. In his speech, he thanked the committee members of Majlis Anjung Budi @APB50 which was led by Ms Noor Aizah Abas as the Project Director. The speech was then followed by the Vice Chancellor's speech who mentioned the role of APB in offering language courses to UiTM students, which plays a significant part in developing students' communication skills to face the current global marketplace.

The Vice Chancellor then proudly officiated the ceremony by launching the APB Golden Jubilee gimmick - in the form of a pulut-cutting session. Also, three APB publication materials; APB50 Coffee Table Book, Memori Tinta Emas Akademi Pengajian Bahasa, and APB eQuarterly were handed over to the Vice Chancellor to showcase the history, work, and activities of APB.

To enliven this momentous occasion, various types of entertainment were performed throughout the night such as a traditional dance performance by students from Sekolah Kebangsaan Raja Muda, exciting lucky draws, and singing performances by APB lecturers. Among other highlights of the night were the APB50 anniversary video screening, award-giving ceremony, and best dressed award.

The most memorable performance was delivered by nine APB lecturers who sang the Rasa Sayang song in nine different languages which were Malay, English, Arabic, Mandarin, Japanese, German, Korean, Italian, and French. The performance was heartily enjoyed by the audience, especially the Vice Chancellor who not only sang along with the performers, but also recorded the performance from the beginning until the end.

During this splendid night, an award-giving ceremony was held to celebrate and appreciate APB staff and lecturers who had outstanding achievements in 2022. A total of 17 awards were presented to the winners in the Academic and Administration categories.
