EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

During my transformative 24-week industrial training at MAPA Gloves Sdn Bhd, Ipoh, I immersed myself in their mission of achieving global excellence through innovative and cost-effective hand protection solutions. From experiencing their unwavering commitment to quality and meticulous supply chain oversight to engaging with advanced cleaning and protection solutions, I witnessed firsthand their dedication to customer safety and comfort.

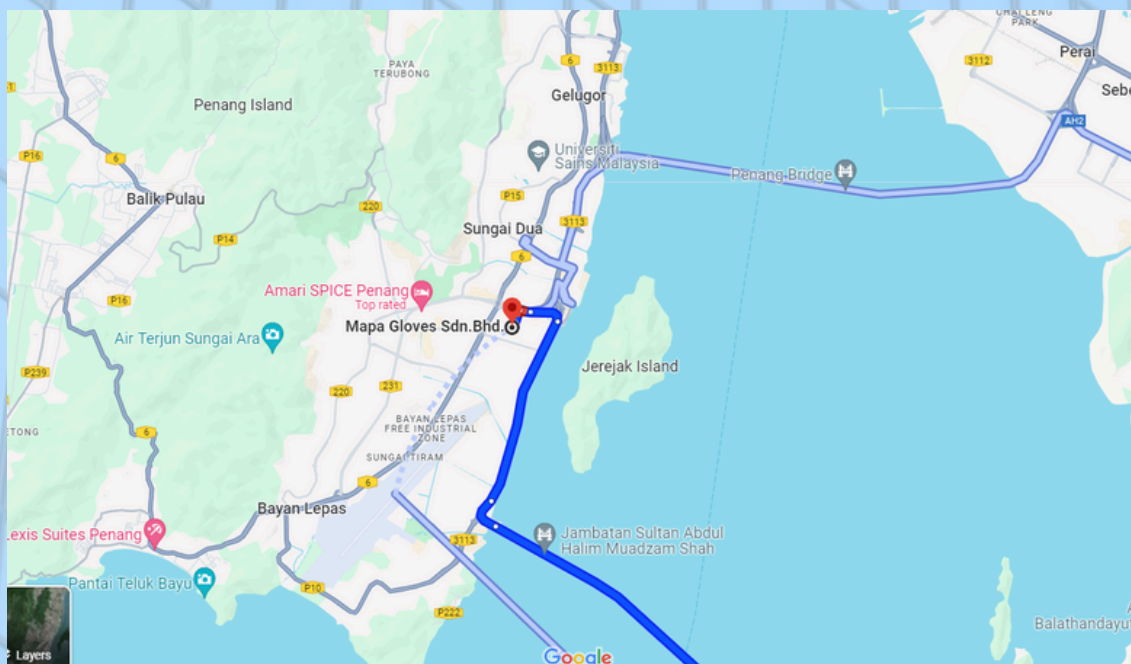

Beyond technical skills, the training provided invaluable opportunities for personal growth, enhancing my communication, problem-solving, and leadership abilities. MAPA Gloves' emphasis on employee well-being through tangible rewards like a monthly allowance and medical benefits underscored their supportive workplace culture.

Analyzing their strategic landscape revealed internal strengths in brand reputation and a proactive approach to growth opportunities, while also highlighting areas for operational enhancement. This experience not only broadened my professional expertise but also deepened my admiration for MAPA Gloves' ethos of excellence, safety, and continuous innovation, reinforcing my commitment to contributing meaningfully to the industry's advancement.
