SMALL KINDNESS RAYA EDITION

Nur Asilla Binti Hazman
Neocardia Club

In conjunction with Aidilfitri, MESTA had organized a gift giving program called Small Kindness: Raya Edition. It was a month-long program that starts on 5 April and ends on 20 May. This program involves both medical and dental students. A total of 15 members from Exco Kebajikan and Kerohanian together with Corporate Communication Unit of Faculty of Medicine were involved in this program.

The objective of this program includes to create compassion between students and lecturers, to create a healthy culture of giving and to collect money for future project expenses. Other than that, this program also gives the committee a chance to run a physical program instead of online they were used.

A lot of benefits were gained from this program such as the buyer were given a platform to show their appreciation towards the individual they bought the gift for. Furthermore, as for the committee members, they were given the chance to understand the world of business when handling the money collection and gift delivery.

According to their secretary, they had sold a total of 42 package which consist of 13 orders for package A, 1 order for package B, 7 orders from package C, 2 orders from package D and 19 customised package. The made a profit of RM261.94 that would be used for their next project.
