and Manufacturing Engineering; and Computer Science and Information Systems. As for the broad subjects, UiTM continues to be ranked in four key areas: Social Sciences and Management and Arts and Humanities (ranked 401-450), Engineering and Technology (ranked 451-500), and Life Sciences and Medicine (ranked 501-550).

UiTM Vice-Chancellor, Professor Datuk Ts. Dr Shahrin bin Sahib @ Sahibuddin regards the achievements as meaningful, coinciding with the holy month of Ramadan. He emphasized that this recognition reflects Warga UiTM's unwavering commitment to fostering robust academic and research. The year 2025 marks a transitional phase for the UiTM2030 Strategic Plan. Aligned with the aspiration 'Globally Renowned, Locally Rooted', UiTM is steadfast to fostering global competitiveness by enhancing academic achievements, expanding strategic collaborations, and ensuring a significant impact on society and the nation.

DoR Supports FSG's Strategic Blueprint with QS Ranking Insights

20th March 2025

The Faculty of Applied Sciences (FSG) UiTM Shah Alam took a significant step toward strengthening its global standing through a strategic ranking engagement session with the Department of Ranking (DoR), UiTM Global. Held at the Smart Classroom, UiTM Shah Alam, the session was organized in conjunction with the development of the FSG2030 Blueprint, a long-term strategic plan to guide the faculty's future direction in academic excellence and international recognition.

The session served as a focused platform to discuss the latest developments in global university rankings, particularly the QS World University Rankings (WUR) by Subject 2025. The DoR shared an overview of UiTM's current performance and offered detailed analysis on subject-level indicators, highlighting strengths and identifying areas with high potential for improvement. Discussions centered on how FSG can enhance its contribution to UiTM's international visibility by strengthening its positioning in key subjects. DoR also presented data-driven insights for subjects with the potential to be ranked in the QS WUR by Subject 2026, prompting proactive planning by the faculty.

FSG's leadership, including the Dean, Deputy Deans, and top management, expressed strong commitment to implementing focused strategies that align with critical QS indicators such as academic reputation, research citations, and international
