Gateway to International Education: Academic Visitation by Beijing Foreign Studies University

Academi Pengajian Bahasa (APB) has received an academic visit by a delegation from Beijing Foreign Studies University (BFSU), China. A total of seven BFSU representatives were present, led by Professor Dr. Li Wenlian as Vice President of BFSU. All delegations were warmly welcomed by APB and the delegation was represented by Professor Dr. Ahmed Nasyuddin, Rector of APB, and Deputy Rector, Dr. Nor Fazli Mohd Baki, APB Deputy Dean of Research and Industrial Networking, Dr. Syarifah Suhaimi, APB Industry, Community and Alumni Network (ICAN) Coordinator, Associate Professor Dr. Nor hazlina Husin, APB Research and Publication Coordinator and Dr. Rozaimah Rashidin, Head of the Center for Malay Studies. Also present were lecturers from the Department of Malay Studies.

Commemoration ceremony led by Professor Dr. Ahmed Nasyuddin Bakar as Director of UTM's Global Strategic Partnership

This is a proactive step in strengthening the relationship between the two institutions in the field of teaching and research. Several academic matters were discussed during the visit, such as collaborating teaching, student and staff exchange programs, guest lecturer opportunities and others. In addition, this visit also discussed cooperation opportunities, MoU/MoA and collaborative efforts for international partnership.

It is expected that this visit will open the door to closer and more beneficial cooperation for both institutions in the future.
