The Journey of Knowledge

Nur Dalila Adenan, Nur Shafini Mohd Said
Universiti Teknologi MARA Cawangan Terengganu, Terengganu, Malaysia

Between dusk and dawn, the pages wait,
Silent witnesses to dreams delayed.
Not every road is meant for haste,
Some truths mature in patient shade.

The weight of questions bends the spine,
Yet hope still lingers, line by line.
Each sleepless night, each fleeting sigh,
Builds the courage not to deny.

Friends may wonder, whispers may rise,
"Why so long beneath these skies?"
But wisdom grows beyond the clock,
Like waves that shape the steadfast rock.

To walk this path is not to race,
But to embrace a slower grace.
For learning's heart is never done,
Its flame renews with every dawn.

Beyond the deadline, beyond the prize,
Knowledge opens a thousand eyes.
For every seeker, near or far,
The journey itself defines who we are.

And when the summit feels too steep,
The climb itself is what we keep.
