CONCLUSION, REFERENCE AND APPENDIX

6.1 CONCLUSION

Based on my practical training, there still more things to be learn. Not only in the university but as well in the working situation itself because as a human being, nobody is perfect but we need still need to be the best of ourselves. Because what I really learn from the practical training is not only about learning about plantation, but also about every aspect that need to be involved such as the communication between the worker and the staff, the assistant and the estate manager, worker and etc. Not only that, we also need to try an error every day, making a mistake is common but trying to be responsible and come up with a new idea is not, so in this estate I always learn to think outside of the box in order to fix but never too confidence, make sure to always ask a question if you don't understand about a task which are given to you.

So in conclusion, I learn to be positive in this estate but never to be naïve, because there no such things as the perfect estate but there is always ways to make a better change for the better future to come , because I see a lot of potential in this estate and from there I have learn to see another opportunity for me to growth both mentally and physically , and 3 month is not enough for me , because I believe that there are more to be learn and what am I doing now is just a scratch from the surface of the earth.
