EXECUTIVE Summary

To fulfill the final requirement of my Bachelor's degree, I was given the opportunity to intern at Nasuha Herbs & Spices in the Human Resources Department. Situated on a 3,200-acre plantation in Muar, Johor, Nasuha is one of Asia's top herbal-based businesses, providing everything from manufacturing to wellness tourism. Through my internship, I gained valuable experience with HR procedures at a fast-paced, dynamic company that prioritizes people, innovation, and tradition.

This internship not only taught me practical HR skills, but also helped me see the big picture but on how HR contributes to a company's growth and sustainability. I saw both strengths and places for improvement, particularly the potential to further digitalize HR processes and increase employee development efforts.

Overall, this internship journey was extremely beneficial to my academic progress and personal development. It fueled my interest in human resources and gave me the confidence to pursue it as a professional job in the future.

During my internship, I was actively involved in various major areas of human resources. In order to draw in qualified applicants, I helped organize and advertise job openings on a variety of channels. I also helped with the recruitment process, which included evaluating resumes, shortlisting candidates, and scheduling interviews with department heads. These jobs provided me with hands-on experience managing one of HR's most critical functions.

To whom I thanked for.

The ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My sincere gratitude also goes to my supervisor, Ms Nurul Ashiqin binti Rosnan, for her invaluable guidance and mentorship. Her trust and support gave me the confidence to perform my responsibilities with enthusiasm and integrity.

Last but not least, to my dear close friends who have been with me through thick and thin, thank you for always lending your ears, prayers, kind words and emotional support. Their presence has helped me remain strong and optimistic.

First and foremost, with the utmost gratitude, I would like to begin this report by thanking the Almighty— Allah SWT, for granting me strength, health, patience and perseverance to complete my internship journey successfully. Definitely, without His guidance and endlessly blessings, this journey would not have been possible. Every challenge faced and every lesson learned throughout this experience has been a reminder of His wisdom and mercy.

I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to my beloved parents, who have been my greatest pillars of strength. Their constant prayers, unconditional love, and endless encouragement have been my source of motivation. Through every step of this journey, they stood by me with open arms and kind words, believing in me when I doubted myself. For their sacrifices and support, I am eternally thankful.

I am also deeply grateful to my internship advisor, Sir Fadli bin Dali. His consistent in guidance, feedback and encouragement throughout the internship helped me stay focused and organized. I appreciate the time and effort he has dedicated to ensure that I fulfill my academic and practical responsibilities well.

Thank you to my colleagues at the workplace for their warm welcome, support and cooperation that have been shown to me. Their willingness to help me made it easier for me to adapt to the real working environment.
