Engineering Accreditation Council (EAC) Visit

April, 24th-25th 2024

The School of Civil Engineering at Universiti Teknologi MARA recently hosted a crucial accreditation review for its bachelor's in civil engineering with Honours program, which took place on 24th to 25th April 2024. This pivotal event saw the participation of esteemed panel members from the Engineering Accreditation Council (EAC), Board of Engineers Malaysia, underscoring a significant milestone for the institution. The sessions commenced with an opening ceremony, initiated by a reflective recitation from Ts. Dr. Musmuliadi Bin Kamaruding. Ts. Dr. Yazmin Sahol Hamid, serving as the master of ceremony guided the proceedings throughout the event.

Other distinguished panel members included Associate Prof. Ir. Dr. Teo Wee and Ir. Ts. Wong Chee Fui, who, alongside Prof. Ir. Dr. Mohammed Alias Yusof, evaluated various aspects of the civil engineering program. The leadership of the School of Civil Engineering was prominently represented by its head, Prof. Ir. Ts. Dr. Che Khairil Izam Che Ibrahim, who led the accreditation process. The review concluded with closing remarks from Prof. Ir. Dr. Hj. Hamidah Mohd Saman, who reiterated the importance of maintaining high educational standards and fostering strong industry connections to enhance the quality and relevance of their engineering programs.

This accreditation review is expected to greatly enhance the academic offerings and uphold the rigorous educational standards of Universiti Teknologi MARA's engineering programs, benefiting both current and future students.
