JAPANESE CULTURE AND THE MORALS

By

Tomonari Tsuchiya

16 November 2017

SPACE AND SILENCE

- SPACE FROM OUR MORALS
- FROM THE SPIRITUAL ATMOSPHERE AND THE DISTINCTIVE MOOD

JAPANESE MUSIC FROM TRADITIONAL INSTRUMENTS

- Origin
- Instruments Categories

JAPANESE MUSIC FROM TRADITIONAL INSTRUMENTS

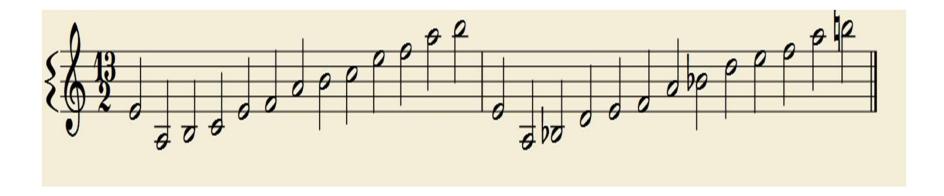

- KOTO
- SHAMISEN
- SHAKUHACHI
- SHO

KOTO

KOTO TUNINGS

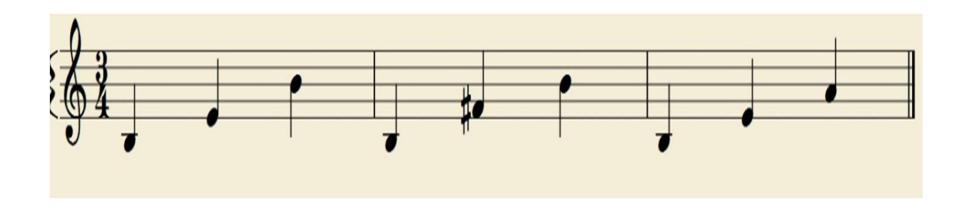

- HIRA JOSHI (LEFT)
- KUMOI JOSHI (RIGHT)

SHAMISEN

SHAMISEN TUNING

SHAKUHACHI

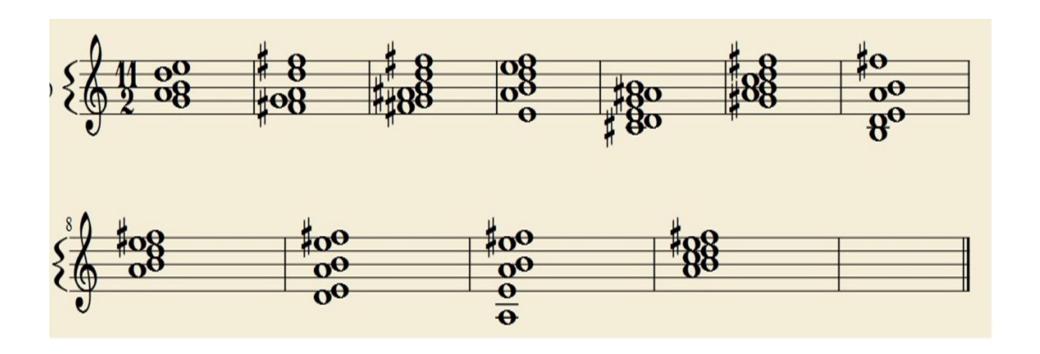

SHAKUHACHI

- EMBOUCHURE
- OUT OF TEMPO
- BREATHING TECHNIQUE

SHO

SHO's CHORDS

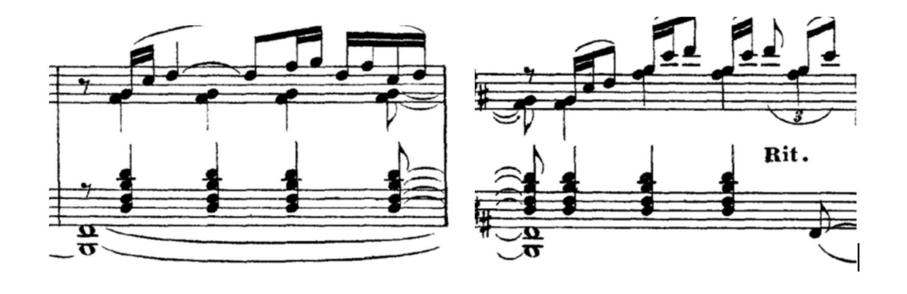

SUMMARY

- RELIES OF INSTRUMENTAL TECHNIQUES AND TIMBRE ALONG WITH POETIC SONGS AND PLAYS.
- EACH INSTRUMENTS HAS FIXED TUNING
- LIMITED NUMBERS OF TUNINGS
- MELODIES ARE MAINLY MODAL AND HOMOPHONIC

 'All Japanese art forms spring from a concept of beauty that focuses on simplicity of gesture to enable artistic expression to manifest itself most purely. This is why Japanese musicians are not interested in adding complexity to the homophonic textures of their music.'

FROM PAGODES

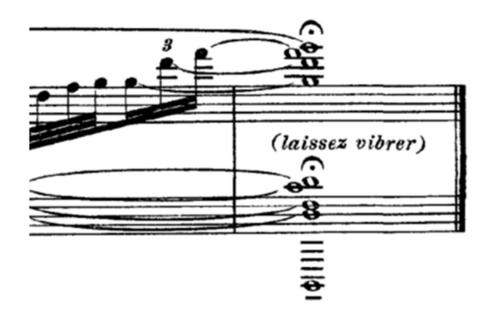

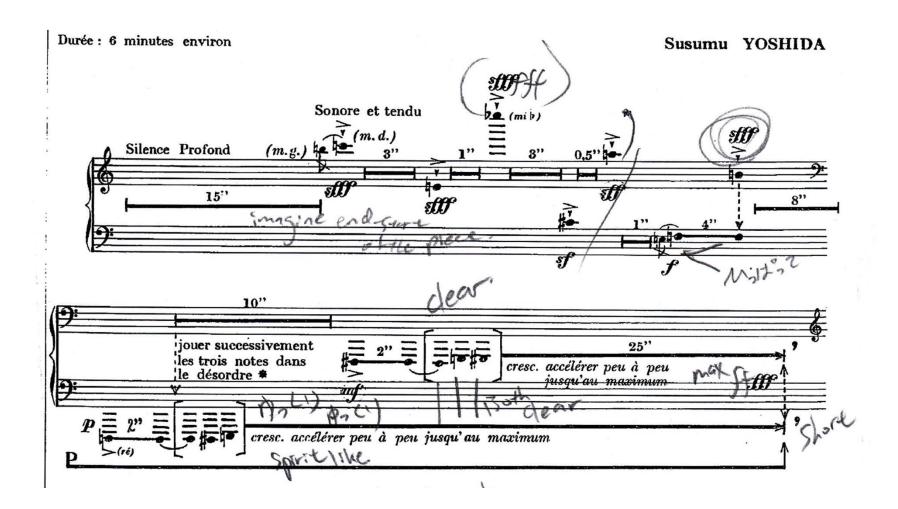

MUSIC STRUCTURE

- The development of a single musical motifinto larger masses of material.
- Gradual simplification of material by moving from textures of great complexity to simpler textures.

RAINTREE SKETCH II

KODAMA

THE END!!!!