ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillah and a million thank you to Allah (S.W.T) the almighty for gracefully guiding me through the completion of this research and also for the gift of perfect health during the process of finishing this project.

In the preparation of this project, there are so many people who have helped in contributing to the completion of this project. They have supplied me with many thoughts, ideas and recommendations towards the project. One person in particular is my supervisor, Encik Ahmad Shazrin Bin Mohamed Azmi who has been understanding and considerate by giving me his guidance, encouragement, critics and advice. To him I wish to express my sincerest appreciation. I also wish to say thank you to Associate Prof. Sr. Hjh. Haspalela Bt. Md. Yusof for being so helpful and giving me an understanding about the project.

I am also thankful to my parents, family and friends for being considerate and giving me encouragement to finish this project. I am also thankful to them for being there and supporting me when there is a seed of doubt in finishing this project.

Besides that, I am also thankful to Encik Radin from Lembaga Tabung Haji and also the people who responded to the questionnaire for providing me with the necessary information needed. Finally thanks to everyone who has helped me and contributed in the finalization of this project whether directly or discreetly.

ABSTRACT

As we all know, the rapid economic development has increase the needs for more spaces in conducting businesses. There are also many corporations involved in the economic development and this corporation needs real property or also known as corporate real estate in order to operate. Corporate real estate management is a supporting management function that helps the corporation in achieving their goals. There is no written form of understanding the importance of corporate real estate management. That is why the main aim of this project is to investigate the importance of corporate real estate management to the corporation in order to fully understand and see the potential of corporate real estate. Sources of data for this project comes from journals, newspaper articles, and also books and this is supported by people who are related to the field by using questionnaires and doing interviews. It is hoped that this project could clearly explain the importance of corporate real estate management and also explain on the risk involved in the management for the developing future of the corporate world.
