ABSTRACT

The main purpose of this study is to identify the effectiveness of promotional tools done by ProEight Offshore Engineering Sdn Bhd to create customer awareness. The objective of this study is to determine the most suitable promotional tools that the company has done to enhance customer loyalty. ProEight Offshore Engineering Sdn Bhd has offered refurbishment services and innovation of mechanical seals as their product, which is why ProEight Offshore Engineering Sdn Bhd is a premier domestic company that enters this industry. However, to compete with international products, this company has to determine which promotional tools can influence more to the customer.

The respondent is 34; the company has existing customers who have a contract agreement with ProEight Offshore Engineering Sdn Bhd. The data collected from the questionnaire is primary data. The Statistical Package for the Social Science (SPSS) version 14.0 has been used to summarize the data. In conclusion, the researcher found that the most effective promotional tool done by this company is sales promotion, which is an activity that can increase the degree of confidence level of customers to the company's service and products, and it also creates customer loyalty to the company. In addition, the results show a positive relationship between promotional tool activities and the effectiveness of promotional tools done by ProEight Offshore Engineering Sdn Bhd. Lastly, the recommendations are made based on several logical factors and the impact of the current situation on the promotional tools practiced.
