ABSTRACT

This research is conducted for the purpose of getting a better judgment as to the issue of the legality of paintball specifically paintball markers under Malaysian law. Besides, this research is conducted to understand Malaysian law in regulating paintball markers in comparison with laws in other countries such as Canada, Singapore, United Kingdom and Australia. This research is conducted through library research that includes primary and secondary sources as well as interviews and survey.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We would like to acknowledge the advice and guidance of Encik Mohd. Haris Rani, our supervisor for this research. His endless support, suggestions and encouragement have been very helpful in the preparation and completion of this research.

A special thanks to Bukit Aman police headquarters, Division Five: Law and Prosecuting Division, for sharing their views, opinion and also invaluable information regarding our research and furthermore, for sharing their precious time to share their knowledge with us.

We would also like to express our gratitude Section 9 Shah Alam police station with the Head Contingent Licensing Officer of Selangor for their willingness to share their views for this research. This research would not have been possible unless Mr. Andrew Loh of Werdna Hol Sportz shared his views and experience as a pioneer in the paintball industry. We also owe our deepest gratitude to Mr. Wong Yoong Wei of MAPAAC, Astaka for sharing his views in the completion of this research.

We would also like to thank fellow paintball players for their willingness to share their experience and knowledge hence the completion of this research.

It is a pleasure to thank our parents for the financial aids, moral support and encouragement and we would also like to extent our gratitude to all lecturers for the encouragement and guidance given throughout the finishing point of this research.

Finally, we are indebted to our friends and classmates for all their love, criticism and continuous support during the preparation and the completion of this research.
