ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, we wish to thank Almighty Allah, because of His blessings, we had granted with good health and were able to finish this challenging assignment. We would also like to express our highest gratitude to our supervisor of this research, Prof. Madya Dr. Mohd Amin bin Abdul Rahman who had helped us from the beginning to the completion of this task. We are gratefully blessed by his presence and patience.

We also owe a debt of gratitude to our parents. These noble people in our lives always gave us monetary or moral support to us. Our deepest appreciation thanks goes to them.

To Prof Dr Shad Saleem Faruqi, Dr Chia, Prof Dr Abu Bakar Abdul Majeed who had spent their valuable time to be interviewed, we would like to express our thanks; for the most utmost cooperation we had received in finishing this research.

All of our friends also deserve a special mention. They had remained patient and cheerful even when we were working under constant pressure.

Lastly, to all these people and to others, who have in one way or other, given us invaluable help, assistance and advice, we are grateful for their generous assistance.

ABSTRACT

This research was conducted to determine the position of transgenders under civil and Islamic law as well as their rights and obligations. This topic was chosen because it had never been brought up for discussion despite the fact that transgenders in the society has grown in numbers. Therefore, this issue needs more discussion and explanation for future benefits.
