

REGIONAL INSTITUTIONS MANAGING TERRORISM AND WAR CRIMINALS

By

Ahmad Lutfee Bin Abdul Razak (2009729561)

Mohd Amirul Faliq Bin Mohd Faizal (2009911441)

Muhd Izzat Bin Sukeri (2009910063)

Submitted in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Bachelor in Legal Studies (Hons)

Universiti Teknologi MARA

Faculty of Law

June 2012

The students/authors confirm that the work submitted is their own and that appropriate credit has been given where reference has been made to the work of others.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The process of writing and completing this project paper indeed entails support from various individuals and institution. Foremost, deepest gratitude are given to our lecturers for Legal Research and Methodology (LAW 557), Dr Sheila Jayabalan, for the guidance conveyed throughout the preparation of the project paper. Nevertheless, it is such a great pleasure for us to be under the supervision of Associate Professor Rohani Md Shah who besides of being supportive and constructive upon the completion of the project paper; is also tirelessly providing us with assistance academically and morally. Above and beyond the appreciation mentioned, we are also very grateful to our family members and friends for endless supports given from the beginning until the completion of this research which has been carried out diligently by our team members.

ABSTRACT

Terrorism and war crimes had threatened the lives of many people around the world. The issues had been debated over years, yet the numbers are rapidly growing. Sadly, the management of terrorism and war crimes are not managed efficiently by the responsible bodies. This study examines the needs of human security and global governance and also the weaknesses of the United Nations Organization and Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN). This project would also highlight the current situations which occur in Middle East and Southeast Asia. Qualitative research methodology is adopted which consists of books, articles and journals. In conclusion, it identifies a need for a better another regional institution to overtake the management of terrorism and war crimes from the United Nations Organization and ASEAN.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgement	ii
Abstract	iii
Contents	iv

CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION

1.0 Background	1
1.1 Problem statement	3
1.2 Objective of Study	3
1.3 Literature Review	3
1.4 Methodology	7
1.5 Scope of study	8
1.6 Significance of study	8
1.7 Provisional plan of study	8

CHAPTER TWO: HUMAN SECURITY AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

2.0 Introduction	10
2.1 Human Security	10
2.1.1 Economics – Conflicts diamonds of Sierra Lone	11
2.1.2 Vulnerable populations during war – children	12
2.1.3 Availability of small arms and light weapons (SALW)	13
2.2 Global Governance	14
2.2.1 The need of proper punishments of terrorist and war criminals	15
2.3 Conclusion	17

CHAPTER THREE: INSTITUTIONS MANAGING TERRORISM AND WAR CRIMES

3.0 Introduction	18
3.1 Definition of terrorism and war crimes	18
3.1.1 Relation between terrorism and war crimes	19
3.2 United Nations Organization	20
3.3 United Nations' Organs	21
3.3.1 General Assembly	21
3.3.2 The Security Council	23
3.4 Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN)	25
3.4.1 Importance of ASEAN Convention Counter Terrorism (ACCT)	26
3.4.1.1 Management of war, security of humans and peace	26
3.4.1.2 Respect for equality, territorial integrity and non-interference	30
3.4.1.3 Fair treatment towards person	32
3.5 Personality in managing terrorism and war crimes	33

