ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We would like to thanks to all people who had given us support in the writing of our Honours Project Paper about the Internal Security Act 1960: The Violation of Human Right.

First, we would like to say a lot of gratitude to Madam Norlaily binti Othman, who had given all her precious time especially for us. She had assisted us in the making of this research report. She had helped us in every way she could to make sure that the research report follows the time-line that she had make for us. And for that we would want her to know that all her hard work is valuable for us.

Secondly, we would like to thank Prof Shad Saleem Faruqi, for allowing us to interview him. All his answers to our questions in no doubt had made a very brilliant change to our perception and thinking of Internal Security Act. His opinion and recommendation regarding the Internal Security Act had led us to come with this proposal.

Lastly, to all of our friends, and each of persons who had contributed in this research proposal, we would want to give you all a credit for your moral support. We would also want every one to know, that without your support, we would have never completed this research project paper.

ABSTRACT

This research mainly consists of three parts. The first part will deal with the violation of human rights. We will determine whether ISA breaches the Article 5(3) of the Federal Constitution. The condition of the detention place will be measured using the United Nation Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners. The violations of human rights also will be look into the treatment received by the detainees. The second part will deal with the misuse of the ISA by the government. The government have use ISA as a tool of political oppression. The misuse of the ISA will be analyzed through several of decided cases. The abuse in the treatment will also be highlighted in this part. The last part will imposed several recommendations to improve the ISA. These recommendations were to avoid the violation of detainees' human rights and misuse of ISA by the minister. Recommendations imposed in this part will concern with the detentions under ISA and the actions of the minister or his officer in dealing with ISA. An independent body or tribunal that regulates the ISA should be established. This research is a library based research. Internet becomes our vital tool to dig in the information. We also did public interview to discover the knowledge of the public about ISA. We have interview Prof. Shad Saleem Faruqi in order to get an expert's opinion in completing our research.
