

AIDILFITRI CONTRIBUTION- GIVING CEREMONY

Dr. Aida Azlina Ali, the Deputy Dean of Student Affairs at the Faculty of Pharmacy, demonstrated her compassion and dedication by personally delivering a remarkable gesture of support to a group of pharmacy students. On April 12, 2023, at the Dean's office, Faculty of Pharmacy, UiTM Puncak Alam, Dr. Aida distributed a total of five thoughtfully assembled packages to students who were unable to return to their hometowns to celebrate Hari Raya Aidilfitri with their families. Each meticulously filled package contained a variety of essential items, including dry food, traditional festive cookies, and other much-needed provisions.

The Sekretariat Mahasiswa Fakulti Farmasi (SMF Farmasi) organised a laudable initiative that showcased an incredible display of unity and benevolence within the Faculty of Pharmacy. The initiative aimed to alleviate students' feelings of homesickness during the upcoming holiday break. The society fervently rallied the support and involvement of esteemed lecturers and dedicated staff members, who selflessly contributed to this heartwarming cause. Their genuine acts of kindness and sincere donations exemplified the true spirit of giving and sharing during this joyous season.

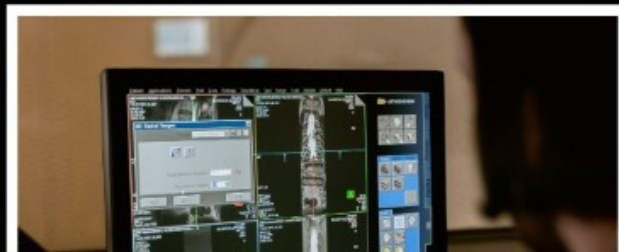

In summary, the successful initiative by SMF Farmasi and the immense generosity of faculty members, have truly made a difference in the lives of these pharmacy students. The collaborative efforts and selfless acts of sharing have left an indelible mark, fostering a spirit of compassion, empathy, and togetherness within the academic community. It is through such collective actions that the true essence of the holiday season is realised, as individuals come together to bring light, joy, and comfort to those in need.
