ABSTRACT

This study will look at time management and practice method in musical instrument particularly music performance students of the Faculty of Music. The objectives of this study are to investigate how music students manage time for their assignments or projects and practice major instruments. Besides, this study attempts to explore the music students' practice in their major instrument. The purpose of this study is to identify the causes why music student performance does not complete their task on time. This study was conducted and managed within the Faculty of Music in Seksyen 17 located in Shah Alam, Selangor. The target subjects are music performance students semester 3 and above and randomly particularly in music performance. From the findings, a clear perception of time management and how they manage time will be obtained in order to inculcate time management and practice method from music performance students Faculty of Music UiTM.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

"In the name of God, the Most Gracious and Most Merciful"

First off all I would like to express my utmost gratitude to Mr. Rizal Ezuan Zulkefli Tony for his clear guidance, supportive advice and his great patience in the accomplishment of this study.

I would also like to extend my greatest thanks to my fellow colleagues in spending a small portion of their time in answering my questionnaire. Without their help, this study has no meaning.

Aside of that, I would also like to thank my family in supporting me with care and tolerance in completing this study. Not to forget my dear close friends in assisting and fixing small errors that I have missed. Bless you all.
