ABSTRACT

The practical task that I choose is the finishing work at PPR Melana Indah. I choose this as my case study to make this practical training report based on my experienced that I have been exposed at the site during my practical training. For the format of practical training report are divided into several chapter that is chapter 1 : company background, chapter 2 : literature review of finishing work, chapter 3 : case study of finishing work in project construction at PPR Melana Indah, Johor Bahru. For chapter 4 : problem and recommendation at the site and for chapter 5 : is about my conclusion.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would thank to Allah S.W.T because I can finally able to finish my task that have been given to me. This assignment can be done with the full commitment and cooperation from the site staff that provide me with the details of project that I need for my report. Besides that, I would like to give a big thank you to my supervisor SR Norehan Dato' Hj Mohd Noor, who had given a good guidance and help me throughout this assignment which make me clear and understand about this practical training report.

Last but not least, I would express my biggest thank to my parents whose had given me a continuously moral support and finance support that they have been given to me. Without all the people that I have mentioned before, maybe this task cannot be completely finished.
