Abstract

"According to Musa, Aziz & Yasran (2009), Jawi writing is no longer a matter of education in the school, except for a handful of students in specific schools and learning Islamic studies subject. The limitations in used of Jawi script has created harmful, when people start to forget this scripture. In addition, the effective use of teaching aids will help the process of teaching and learning in an enjoyable manner and allow the materials to be easily understood by the students (Rashidi and Abdul Razak, 1998). Nowadays, living in the world of transformation from older systems makes the transformation to be done to change to an efficient system in each aspect of life including education. Online learning is one of the most important transformations in educational field but does not yet implemented by JAWI. As conclusion, diverse strategies and methods of teaching and learning will provide opportunity for students to increase their interest towards their teachers' teaching. Therefore, we come out with new invention which is can help young generation to improve their learning / knowledge. The invention is "JawiTweet" where's it use as a medium of learning Jawi especially for young generation. Using this account, the follower can view and learn more about Jawi which is using 140 second video and 140 words. We will post the video about Jawi alphabet, how to read Jawi, post about short story in Jawi. Moreover, we will interact and communicate with the follower if they have any question, and any suggestion in Jawi."
