Art is a text that bridges abstract fragments through an ethereal enclosure. My artwork encompasses the traditional way of representing my retrospective and concurrent 'experiences' or 'lessons' to the issues that I am reflecting on.

In my artwork, each character is the creature that ventures into fine shadow or the light into my fantasies, or it may work as an adoration method of creating and origin of the disclosure. There is a fantastic, dreamlike quality to the imagination yet the greatest impression is one of nature vitalization through "selfless love".

Therefore, I believe that both science and art reach a similar understanding of the human unconscious mind. I generally discover my approach to surrealism through personal, frequently sentimental associations associated with my imagery members of a group in a 'soothing ambiance' which I find harmony yet can be contrary.
