The Struggle Until The End Of Time

This work was created to inspire all other human beings to live with a contented struggle. The struggle for the Palestinian issue must be continued with all the capabilities we have. The heroes of Gaza have never been intimidated and have not given up. In fact, we continue to fight to the death for the sake of Allah's promise. The land of Gaza will continue to be independent.

“Our hope must be greater than our pain”.

This work uses the Palestinian flag as the centerpiece of the composition. Whereas the black and white chequered pattern on the left and right of the work is a symbol of Palestinian nationalism. It is the Palestinian Keffiyeh which usually worn around the neck or head. The flower image has been used as a metaphor that expresses the Muslims ideal s that our hope must be greater than our pain. This work represents the artist's jihad in its own way but remains in the same line for the well-beloved Aqsa. May this work be a determination for the growth of love for this noble land.
