ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful,

First and foremost, we would like to express our appreciation and gratitude to our advisor, PuanAtifahbinti Othman for support, encouragement and help during the long congestion period of this honors project paper.

We have also benefited from the help of many friends especially to Mr. Muzammil for the help and their never ending support in the long process of making this project paper.

We are forever grateful to our parents for their undivided support and encouragement, without whom we would be unable to complete our project paper.

Last but not least, all praise to Allah SubhanahuwaTa'ala whose help and guidance has sustained us to bring this proposal to completion.

ABSTRACT

This proposal is primarily aimed to review the federal constitution regarding the right of freedom of information in Malaysia. This proposal is purport to focus on the right of information to be included as a fundamental right and liberties. Hence, this right must be given to the citizens of Malaysia. In an effort to reach the objective of this paper, we will carefully examining and critically analyze the adequacy of provision in Federal Constitution of Malaysia 1957 in governing the freedom of information and to identify the gaps in the current legislation.
