ABSTRACT

Tourism sector is the second biggest source of income for Malaysia as a nation. This is in line with the current government intention (from its 2004 budget) to accelerate the domestic private sector and stimulate the services sector to spearhead economic growth. Last year, tourist arrivals to Malaysia for the period from January to September registered 12.2 million visitors. This is an overall increase of 4.3 percent compared to the same period in 2004.

Malaysia have a many culture, wonder and attraction it is a bubbling, bustling melting pot of races and religion where malays, Chinese, indians and many other people live together in peace and harmony. Malaysia also has a land of fascinating extremes, where towering skyscrapers look down upon primitive longhouses. Blessed with natural wonders galore, it is perfect for a memorable eco-holiday. With some of the best beaches and diving spots in the world,

Tourism has their on product it is just for tourist user, the product design special just for the tourism, in the day we can see a many product made for tourism. Is easier to tourist the one of the tourism product is the information kiosk for the bus station it use to easier for the tourist to find the place or information about the place that they prefer to go. and the can find the all the information about the hotel or the resort in around that place.
