

Effective Lecturing Skills

Mr Azli sharing on 'Constructing Test'

Madam Afiqah on 'Essential Academic Grammar'

Academy of Language Studies (ALS), Universiti Teknologi MARA Cawangan Pulau Pinang (UITMCP) was invited to conduct a three-day workshop for lecturers teaching Diploma in Architecture and Site Supervision of Institut Kemahiran MARA (IKM) Sungai Petani.

The objective of the workshop is to equip the participants' English language competency skills in view of IKM courses being upgraded from certificate to the diploma level. Madam Nazima Versay Kudus was appointed the head of the project along with other team members which included Mr Noor Azli Affendy Lee, Madam Wan Noorli Razali and Madam Nur Afiqah Ab Latif. It was a 2-day workshop which was held at the Park Avenue Hotel, Sungai Petani from September 20-22, 2022.

Various aspects were focused in the workshop. Madam Wan Noorli's session was concentrated on 'Ice Breaking' and 'Giving Feedbacks' meanwhile Madam Nazima's session was directed towards 'Teaching Styles' and 'Delivery Techniques'. The other two consultants namely Mr Azli and Madam Nur Afiqah were entrusted to speak on 'Using Visual Aids and Constructing Tests' and 'Essential Academic Grammar and Facilitating Student Note-Taking' respectively.

The workshop involved lectures, discussions and hand-ons sessions to enable participants gauge their understanding on the subject matter effectively. Positive feedback was gained from the workshop participants in which one of them, Madam Emilia Muhd, pointed out the new-knowledge gained on the awareness to amalgamate various teaching styles to accommodate different learning styles among students. Mr Mohd Nazry Mohd Yunos learned that constructing tests using technology is beneficial as it offers real-time reporting of results. It is hoped the sessions have helped participants in gaining insights to improve their English language competency and pedagogical skills.
