ABSTRACT

The purpose of the study was to make comparison of the satisfaction and effectiveness of internship programmes among UiTM Seremban 3 FSPPP's students during the COVID-19 pandemic. The study was carried between March until August 2022. This study employed probability cluster sampling techniques in collecting the survey data. The result of the study revealed two important findings. First, students' level of satisfaction with the internship programme during the pandemic. Second, the effectiveness of the internship programme during the pandemic.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

‘Syukur Alhamdulillah Kehadrat Ilahi’ for the blessings that Allah s.w.t. has given to both of us while working on this research. We would like to express our deepest gratitude and sincere thanks to everyone that supported us throughout this research paper. We are grateful for the guidance, criticism, and advice while working on this project.

First and foremost, we would like to express our gratitude to our lecturers, Sir Mohd Ramlan bin Mohd Arshad and Dr. Nurul Hidayana binti Mohd Noor, for giving us guidance to complete this research paper. Besides that, we would also like to express our gratitude to Dr. Asmidar Binti Lokman for her guidance and support throughout the research paper. Her knowledge and guidance really helped both of us at all steps in the process of preparing and submitting the research paper. It is such an honor to have her as our supervisor because of her broad knowledge and commitment to consulting us to make the research paper successful.

We would also like to acknowledge and thank our parents and family, who gave us a lot of encouragement throughout the process of making the research paper.

Finally, our sincere thanks to our dear friends who have constantly supported us throughout the process and always motivated us to not give up while working on this research paper. Finally, we are grateful to all who have directly or indirectly been involved in giving us support and being helpful in making this research successful. Without all of the support, it would be impossible for us to complete this research paper.
