NYSYA

GRASSHOPPER INSPIRED ARMCHAIR (FURNITURE DESIGN)

Design Advisor : MR ABU HANIFA AB.HAMID

NYSYA armchair is inspired by nature, which is the grasshopper. This armchair, will be used for home office users and for students. It involves part of the grasshopper. The design adapted the character of the shape of the grasshopper legs. The purpose of this chair will also be to provide comfort to the user, as it has a curved backrest as well as an armrest. This chair also has an attractive and unique design. It may not be more functional, but it will provide comfort for users.

The Nysya design focuses on providing a comfortable armchair for home office workers and students. This chair has a unique design which is the leg of the chair is extracted from the grasshopper's leg shape. So the new looks in this armchair design will be more interesting to users.

This armchair's objective is to create a simple and interesting design characteristic. To create a comfortable armchair design with backrest that suitable for student and adult.
