I also express our deepest appreciation to our lecturer, PM Dr Chong Yew Yoong. Without the guidance, interest and encouragement that is invaluable to me, I will not be able to complete this Thesis. Moreover, my classmates also guided me for every step. I was also able to understand it by following Dr Chong instructions which were clearly explained during my class. This helps me grasp the task at hand, as the table of contents must include an Introduction, Literature Review, Research Methodology, and Findings and Result and among other things. I must include specific information in this thesis, such as Sight Reading and so on. This demonstrates the purpose of this work quite clearly. Next, PM Dr Chong monitored my progress and assisted me in rectifying errors in my thesis over the time. With the assistance of PM Dr Chong, my work process is streamlined, and I are able to focus on each task assigned and monitor my progress on a regular basis. Not to mention the recommendations, assistance, and opinions offered by classmates who assist one another in comprehending this thesis. I could not have completed this assignment without their
