ABSTRACT

This study examines the factors influencing university students to register in general elections. The study involved respondents among students in diploma and bachelor's degree levels. This study uses a questionnaire distribution method to collect data from respondents. The method to be used is quantitative, and all data will be analyzed through the Statistical Package for Social Science (SPSS). This method is to extract new data from the data available through the answers from the questionnaire.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Assalamualaikum w.b.t.

Alhamdulillah, we have finished our final year research. First and foremost, we are grateful to the Almighty for the blessings He has given us to complete this report. Secondly, we would like to thank our Applied Research Project (ADS555) supervisor, Dr. Ariff Aizuddin Azlan, and Dr Nurul Hidayana Binti Mohd Noor for the guidance on completing this research. The understanding, encouragement, and continuous support of our lecturer throughout this research are most appreciated.

Last but not least, thank you to our parents, friends, and other parties for the ideas, advice, endless support they have given us. They also contributed a lot to the completion of the research report, especially during these Covid-19 pandemics. Without their help and advice, we could not be able to complete our research report in time.
