ABSTRACT

The purpose of this research is to study the factors that influence the students to become an entrepreneur after they graduate. Previous research found that entrepreneurship has been the lowest career choice among the fresh graduates. Quantitative method was used in this study involving the UiTM Seremban 3 students. Based on this research, there are four factors that influence the UiTM Seremban 3 students to become an entrepreneur after they graduate which are age, personal traits, entrepreneurship education and family background. Besides, this study would be able to determine the student's level of interest in becoming entrepreneurs after they graduate. The result of this study shows that all the factors that have been mentioned earlier have the significant relationship that influence the students to become an entrepreneur after graduation. Other than that, UiTM Seremban 3 students also show a high level of interest in becoming entrepreneurs after graduate. It is hoped that the knowledge gleaned from the findings of this study will help future researchers to understand better the aspects that influence students to become an entrepreneur in the future.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, praises and thanks to Allah S.W.T, the Almighty, for His showers of blessings, giving us good health, patience, determination and many more to complete this research proposal successfully. Secondly, we would like to express our deep and sincere gratitude to our supervisor, Madam Noorie Haryaniee Binti Moulton for providing us invaluable guidance and support throughout completing this research proposal. She's the one who always gives the clear instructions for her students and by that, we managed to complete this task easier. We are extremely grateful for having her as our supervisor for this final year project. We also would like to thank our parents for giving us motivation, support and cooperation throughout the process of us completing this task. Without them surely this task will never seem to be complete. Last but not least, we also would like to dedicate a special thanks to all of our friends that always assist and share whatever information they got that might help us in completing this task. To end with, we hope this research can be useful for everyone.
