

"FREE MARKET FOR ALL"

On NOVEMBER 24, 2018, A 'FREE MARKET' PROGRAMME WAS ORGANISED BY THE LECTURERS OF APPLIED SCIENCE FACULTY (FSG), UiTM PERAK BRANCH, TAPAH CAMPUS AT ARENA MERDEKA, TAPAH. THIS PROGRAMME FOLLOWED THE BASIC CONCEPT OF NIGHT MARKET WHERE NO MONEY TRANSACTION IS INVOLVED AS THE PUBLIC COULD TAKE THEM FREELY FROM THE LECTURERS.

The objectives of the programme were to create a platform in nurturing charitable attitude among the students and lecturers by donating goods or services to those in need, to build a good relationship between UiTM and the public community, and to establish communities that complement each other. Although it was held for the first time, it surprised the organiser as the programme had attracted 300 participations.

Various items, donated by the lecturers themselves were offered in this programme, including clothes for women, men and children, and foods such as rice, flour, cooking oil and drinks. Free services such as skin analysis test were also offered during this programme. This programme involved the whole effort of the lecturers in gathering all used clothes and in raising funds to buy foods to be donated to the people in need.

It was more meaningful as the objectives of this programme were fulfilled successively through an active involvement of both UiTM and Tapah communities, and both parties were satisfied with the programme as they got to learn the importance of being charitable and respectful to others. The programme came to the end at 12 p.m. after all the items had been donated.
