

PROOFREADING WORKSHOP IN COLLABORATION WITH ITBM 2019

The three-day session contributed new knowledge and information related to professional proofreading services. With the knowledge at hand, a proofreading committee was formed, with the inclusion of APB lecturers from both Tapah and Seri Iskandar campuses. A centre called Pro-fEPT has been set up to provide professional editing and proofreading services which will be done by APB experienced and certified proofreaders. If you are interested to have our certified proofreaders to proofread and edit your writings, please contact 012-4538300 (Dr. Shazila) for further details.

The Academy of Language Studies (APB), UiTM Perak Branch, Tapah Campus had organised the Proofreading Workshop on the January 7 - 9, 2019. The workshop was a collaboration between UiTM Perak Branch Tapah Campus and Malaysia Institute of Translation and Books (ITBM). The workshop was organised to expand the knowledge of proofreading amongst language lecturers in UiTM Perak Branch and participants from other institutions namely PICOMS and AGRO Bank. The participants were awarded with certificates which validated them as certified proofreaders. This workshop trained the participants to check and correct syntax errors in theses, articles, journals and many other categories of writings.

By definition, proofreading means reading and marking errors found on any piece of writing, and it is generally done to fix errors in spelling, word usage, grammar, and punctuation. Due to the favourable demands by academicians to free errors from their work, reliable proofreaders are buoyantly sought of. This condition has attracted many linguists and language educators who have wide knowledge in English language to learn more about proofreading, which had led APB UiTM Tapah Campus to encourage their team members to attend this workshop
