

I-YOUTH PRO : BE VOCAL, BE HUMAN, BE YOU!

Acknowledging this quote, Akademi Pengajian Bahasa (APB) UiTM Perak Branch, Students Representative Council and HEP UiTM Perak Branch had organised an International Youth Humanitarian Programme (i-Youth Pro) on April 19 - 20, 2019. This programme was a collaboration with Syria Care and Global Peace Mission (GPM) Malaysia; the NGOs which are actively involved in humanitarian mission. i-Youth Pro 2019 with its tagline 'Be Vocal, Be Human, Be You' was held to create an awareness regarding humanitarian issues at local and international levels among its participants. Several activities were conducted as platforms for the participants to voice out their opinions and views regarding this issue and to help those in need through a humanitarian donation drive.

It had successfully gathered a large number of audience from UiTM Perak Branch as well as students from other institutions such as Universiti Teknologi Petronas (UTP), UiTM Shah Alam, Cosmopoint College Ipoh and Pusrawi International College of Medical Sciences (PICOMS). There were also international students from France and Kashmir who contributed their creative works through the submission of posters and creative writings.

i-Youth Pro started on April 19, 2019 with the launching of Humanitarian Donation Drive by Dr. Mohamed Imran, the Assistant Rector of UiTM Tapah Campus, then followed by i-Youth Pro Quran Hour. More than 100 participants were involved and Surah Al-Hujurat was chosen to be recited and discussed. This surah includes etiquettes and norms to be observed in the Muslim community and declares a universal brotherhood among Muslims.

On April 20, 2019, poetry slam and public speaking participants began sharing their views with the audience. The event then continued with two forum sessions with the NGOs. The first forum focused on the relevance of the United Nations (UN) while the second one discussed on the issue of global refugee crisis. The former was attended by Mr. Ahmad Fahmi Samsudin, the CEO of GPM Malaysia and two other panelists from UTP and UiTM Tapah Campus. Meanwhile, the panelists for the latter were Ustaz Rizal Ali, the Vice Chairman of Syria Care and students from PICOMS and UiTM Tapah Campus.

Later in the afternoon, Mr. Ahmad Fahmi and Miss Nurulatiqah, the Co-ordinator of Syria's Orphans Sponsorship Project, Syria Care were invited to share their experience on being involved in humanitarian work. In his sharing, the CEO of GPM Malaysia had repeatedly emphasised the value of being involved in humanitarian mission. He reminded the younger generation to open their eyes and have an empathy towards the issue. Ahmad Fahmi also added, 'When wealth is lost, something is lost. When character is lost, everything is lost'. The donation giving ceremony to Syria Care and Global Peace Mission (GPM) Malaysia then marked the end of i-Youth Pro 2019.
