ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This research was a challenging for us. However, we had a lot of helps from our supervisor, our lecturer and also from our fellow friends that made this project less difficult. Thanks God because at the end we able to finish all the work for the project. We would like to thank too many parties that involved directly or indirectly in order for us to complete the research paper.

The special give thank a lot to our PAD340 lecturer which is Sir Colonel(R) Saiful Anwar Md Ali that has teaches and give the guideline for us in order to finish up this assignment. All his instruction and information given is very useful for us within the period to do this assignment. We also want to thank to our lovely supervisor, Sir Fairuz Hidayat whom very helpful and given a lot of help for us in order to complete this assignment. Without her help and guideline, we are sure that we cannot be able to finish the research paper. Lastly, we want to thank to our friends, AM1106C that was given their help.

We would like to thank God Almighty without whose blessings we will not have successfully completed this study.

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

1.0 Introduction

In the first chapter, it will consist the general view of our research in term of general background, research objective, significant of study, scope ant the limitations of study, problem statement, hypotheses and even definition of terms.

Sex education is the process of acquiring information and forming attitudes and beliefs about sex, sexual identity, relationship and intimacy. Sex education is also about developing young people's skills so that they make informal choices about their behaviour, and feel confident and competent about acting on their choices. It is widely accepted that young people have a right to sex education.

In Malaysia, this sex education still not implement at the school. Many development countries such as USA, Germany and France already implement this subject. Some of the people think that, Malaysia should follow others development country to introduce this sex education subject at schools due to the increasing social problems teenagers now. However, the question now is practicality of sex education to be learned in our country.

This research is concentrating on the practicality of sex education in the school. It is hoped that this research will be done smoothly as it will be the important reference in the future.

CHAPTER 2: LITERATURE REVIEW

2.0 Introduction

Literature review is the documentation of comprehensive reviews of the published and unpublished work from secondary sources of data in the areas of specific interest to the researcher. In our research, sources of data being collected from books, newspaper articles and related books even journals. We have decided to divide this chapter into certain sub-topics which focus on more specific areas of the study.

The sub-topics consist of defining sex education, the advantages of sex education, how sex education can be effective and solve social problems, the factors that lead to the needs of sex education in schools, the social problems among teenagers,
