Bengkel Pembangunan ePortfolio Pensyarah FSKM

Prepared by Dr. Nur Ida Aniza Rusli

In line with the development of technology, together with the vision of faculty, which to adopt the latest technology in the teaching and learning process, Faculty of Computer and Mathematical Sciences (FSKM) has taken an initiative to conduct an IT-related program, named “BENGGKEL PEMBANGUNAN ePORTFOLIO PENSYARAH FSKM”.

As this program intention to give basic Google Sites application in developing a portfolio to FSKM lecturers, three program objectives have been identified:

- construct online information-sharing medium to share knowledge with the public.
- develop access-friendly teaching and learning platform.
- highlight the expertise and achievements of FSKM lecturers to public.

The program was held on 10th March 2021 and conducted by the FSKM Coordinator, Puan Siti Noor Dina Binti Ahmad. With this program, it is hoped to increase the competencies of FSKM lecturers in the use of technology, especially in utilizing the Google Sites application.

Besides, this e-portfolio could bring positive impact and provide opportunities to the community and industrial sectors in order to identify the strengths of FSKM lecturers for further research and network collaboration.
