ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and most for mist we would like to give our gratitude towards the God Almighty for giving us the chances to complete this research project for us. By completing this research was a challenging project for us. However, we had the help of many parties that made this project less difficult for us. For our supervisor, Miss Farhana binti Yaakub deserves a special mention here because she was giving us advises and guidelines in doing our research to be completed. Miss Farhana binti Yakuub kept motivated us especially during all the moments when the things were not going as we planned. We thank to our supervisor sincerely for being there in my moments of when we need.

Nevertheless by looking back, her toughness made we work harder and for that we was thankful and grateful for our supervisor. We would like to thank you to our lecturer would taught us many things about research that need to be done. We learned a valuable lesson about research in doing our action. What we had learned that things not going as we planned or expected.

Last but not least, big thanks to our supportive family, friends and those who help, support and contributed ideas to the accomplishment of this report either directly or indirectly. Therefore, thank from the bottom of our hearts for being there in our moments of our needed.
