

Write2Gether and Write2Flourish Talk Series

On July 24, 2023, the Faculty of Pharmacy conducted Write2Gether & Write2Flourish Talk Series under the strategic initiative, Promoting Impactful Publication from Academics (PROLIFIC). It is a part of an ongoing effort by the faculty to boost the publication output of faculty members by focusing on high-quality publications. . The event kicked off with a hands-on workshop in the morning by Assoc. Prof. Dr. Syed Adnan Ali Shah.

This workshop aimed to equip participants with the necessary knowledge and expertise to enhance their academic writing processes through the effective utilisation of artificial intelligence (AI) tools. During this workshop, the participants were taught on how to apply AI tools to produce high-quality academic writing more swiftly and easily. The workshop highlighted several tools, namely QuillBot, Wordtune, Humata, Elicit, and ZeroGPT.

The event resumed in the afternoon with a briefing on the Special Issue with Drug Development and Industrial Pharmacy (DPIP) Journal by Prof. Dr. Wong Tin Wui. Prof. Wong shared information regarding the scope and the opportunity to publish in the DPIP special issue. The briefing was followed by a talk entitled "Scoping Review Design in Healthcare: Let's Do It!", which was delivered by Prof. Dr. Mohd Yusmiadil Putera Mohd Yusof, the Deputy Director of Health & Wellness, Research Nexus UiTM (Reneu). During his talk, Prof Yusmiadil introduced the participants to scoping review and walked them through the step-by-step process on how to write a review.

The event received an overwhelming participation from the faculty members and students. A total of 38 and 45 participants attended the morning and afternoon session, respectively. Overall, the workshop received positive feedback from the participants. It is hoped that this event has been a valuable learning opportunity for the participants, fostering a sense of inspiration and motivation to engage in further writing endeavours and publication opportunities.
