

Strengthening Academic Bonds: A Visit from Fakultas Farmasi, Universitas Halu Oleo, Indonesia

On September 21, 2023, the Faculty of Pharmacy at UiTM hosted a delegation from Fakultas Farmasi Universitas Halu Oleo, Indonesia, signifying a significant milestone in fostering academic collaboration between the two institutions. The delegation included Professor Dr Ruslin, the Dean, and Dr Adryan Fristiohady, the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Alumni Relations.

The visit commenced with a presentation by Dr Mohd Shahezwan Abd Wahab, the Deputy Dean of Academic Affairs at the Faculty of Pharmacy, UiTM, providing an overview of the faculty's background, research achievements, academic programs, and activities. This presentation served as an opportunity for both institutions to exchange valuable insights, explore areas of common interest, and identify potential avenues for collaboration. Subsequently, a lively discussion took place between the Faculty of Pharmacy, UiTM, and the delegates from Fakultas Farmasi Universitas Halu Oleo, led by Professor Dato' Dr Abu Bakar Abdul Majeed, the Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy, UiTM. The discussions centered around potential collaborative projects, particularly in research and teaching and learning activities.

The visit concluded with a tour of UiTM's state-of-the-art facilities and laboratories, providing the delegates with a comprehensive understanding of the faculty's resources and facilities. This immersive experience showcased UiTM's commitment to providing a conducive learning environment and inspired potential collaborative projects. The visit from Fakultas Farmasi Universitas Halu Oleo laid the groundwork for future academic collaborations between the two institutions, with possibilities for joint research, student exchanges, joint publications, and faculty development programs. The shared vision and enthusiasm for advancing pharmacy education and research will undoubtedly benefit students, faculty, and the broader scientific community.
