INDUSTRIAL OVERVIEW

Tropical Food industry are specialized on manufacturing Nata De Coco. We choose to produce nata because we can see the advantage from the coconut water that always be a discard after people cleave coconut whether at village or at the market.

Beside that, there are less local industry involving in produce this type of food. We always see brandname namely Shamu, Melati but all this are imported from another countries like Thailand and Indonesia. Hopefully with the establishment of our company can reduce total import of Nata De Coco from neighbor countries. In the other hands, nata is good for healthy and suitable for any level of age.
